

NEWS RELEASE

WSU's Community Education Center Expands new academic opportunities for local residents

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
Ogden, Utah, Jan. 20, 2025.

The Community Education Center (CEC) of Weber State University, is adding to its portfolio of offerings, continuing its mission to empower and support the community in achieving educational goals and developing skills needed to build a professional path.

The following courses are open to the public:

Computer Skills

Designed to help beginners in the technological world and interested in improving their knowledge and learn how to navigate in the digital era. Registration opens on Jan. 20, and the course has a tuition fee of $95. Classes will begin on Feb. 10 and will run until April 28, 2025. Students will meet every Monday and Wednesday from 7-9 p.m. at the principal building of the Community Center, Room 109.

Medical Terminology / Nursing

The program provides linguistic tools to successful in healthcare environments and is designed for those who are interested in healthcare professions.

The cost is $90, and classes will take place every Wednesday from 6 - 9 p.m. and will run until April 9.

“We encourage all members of the community from every level of education and professionalism to look at our programs. We have people that have casual interest and want to develop a hobby to those who want to help to develop a pathway to education and professional development for themselves and their families, and that’s what the Community Education Center is all about,” said Tom Borg, continuing education program administrator.

The ESL Classes (English as a Second Language) have a cost of $115 for the 11 - week face-to-face program. The free placement test to determine skill level takes place the first Friday of every month. For those interested in this program, you can register online or in person.

The CEC opens its doors to everyone, free of discrimination based on race, age or language. We serve the community and are committed to providing accessible educational opportunities. For more information, visit us at <https://continue.weber.edu/cec/> or call 801-626-7911.